

Second Man

Grand.

Fourth Man

But we shall have a great deal more water than curds. You may be sure of that.

First Man

Moti, you atfe & dull fellow.
Water
in the curds at a prince's wedding !

Fourth Man

I Jut we are not princes
ourselves, Panchu. For us, poor people, the curds have the trick of turning into water most parts.

First Man

Look there- That son of the charcoal-burner is still busy with his work-
We mustn't allow that*
